However, it is better not to save the content that someone created, especially if it is your intellectual property and they move it. Remember that downloading anything from YouTube violates the terms of service, no matter what, but it is not a criminal act to download the common creative public domain or distributable video. Just as you take precautions when opening an email that may be a phishing scam, you also need to take precautions when downloading videos online. File sharing torrent sites and some video extractors, which are the websites you paste on the URL of the page that has the video you want to download and the Download site a copy, can get infected with malware that they deposit on your computer When you open the downloaded files. For this reason, it is better to avoid torrents sites in particular - you have no idea who sent the content and what they could do in that sense. Photo Provided: Momo Productions/DigitalVision/Getty Images, search for reliable sources for downloads. If you are using Google Chrome as your browser, for example, visit Chrome Web Store to search extensions that you can add that helps you download videos. They usually have user ratings about their performance and you can spend some time researching what other people recommend as the safest options. Browse those that are highly rated and most frequently downloaded; They are usually the safest choices. Make sure that the sources you are downloading from are also safe. YouTube videos usually do not have attached malware. You can also choose to download certain content such as Netflix videos, which you can save on your computer and watch later offline. Streaming services that allow youThis is almost always safe, because this functionality exists specifically so that you can on the left rof kcehc ,etisbew yrarbil eht otno otno tol.troffe eht htrow sâ€â€ã¢ti ;eno evah tâ€â€â€ I'm not sure if it's true oritceles Sâ€ €ârbil Cilbup lacol ruoy morf enilno senizagaam daer ot secalp tse eht fo enosevihcra yrarbil yrrbil enilno.enilno please rof
